

Dear Potential Applicant,

Thank you for expressing interest in Leadership Main Line. Leadership Main Line was created by The Main Line Chamber of Commerce to provide motivated and committed leaders of the Main Line community the opportunity to learn new skills, establish a network of contacts and gain powerful leadership and community knowledge. We are sure that with your help we will have an abundance of quality candidates to build a diverse group for the 2011 Leadership Main Line class.

Attached is an application for participation in the 2011 Leadership Main Line Program. Please submit the application by 5:00 pm on Friday, October 22, 2010. Should you have a problem meeting this deadline, please contact Colleen Orsino at: 484.253.1103 to make necessary arrangements.

The Main Line Chamber Foundation received scholarship money that is available to non-profit organizations 501c (3) and special needs schools applicants for participation in Leadership Main Line. If you are eligible for scholarship consideration, please complete the scholarship application in addition to the program application.

Applicants will be notified of acceptance by Monday, November 27, 2010.

Full tuition is due no later than Monday, December 6, 2010.

Please mail completed applications to:
